

Essential Element 9: Quiz

Essential Element 9: Quiz

1. Post-trial access refers to any medical benefits provided after the study has ended.
 - True
 - False
2. What are external sponsors ethically obligated to provide, according to the Council for International Organizations of Medical Sciences (CIOMS)?
 - a) Health care services that are essential for the safe conduct of research
 - b) Treatment for participants who suffer injury as a consequence of research
 - c) Payment for the participation of the community concerned
 - d) All of the above.
 - e) A and B only.
3. What should researchers consider including in their study protocol?
 - a) Any plans to provide study participants with continued access to study interventions after the study ends
 - b) Any plans to provide individuals other than study participants with access to study interventions after the study ends
 - c) Any plans for the availability of specific health care services during and after the research, for study participants and the community, and how long
 - d) All of the above.
 - e) A and B only.
4. The availability of post trial access for continuing health care usually does not influence a person's decision-making to participate in a study or affect the risk benefit assessment of the research.
 - True
 - False

Submit

Click here to return to the course home screen